

Structure: Noun phrase. A phrase is a group of words whose meaning is incomplete, although the group of words is part of the sentence.e.g The girl, an umbrella. etc

Noun Phrase consists of a noun which is the headword and determiners or modifiers.e.g A house, The house,The tall house etc. The grammatical functions of Noun phrases. 1.Noun phrase as the subject of the verb

An old man is at the door. Function: Noun phrase as subject of the verb "is". 2.Noun phrase as the object of the verb. An old man broke the door. Function: phrase as the object of the verb "broke" 3.Noun phrase as complement of an object. The man declared his wife a harlot

Function: Noun Phrase as complement of an object "his wife " 4.Noun phrase as complement of a subject. Douglas is an actor . Function: Phrase as complement of a subject "Douglas " 5.Noun phrase as the complement of a preposition. An old man is at the door. Function: Noun Phrase as the complement of preposition "at" 6.Noun phrase in apposition to a noun

Amusan,a renounced athlete,came here last week. Function: Noun phrase in apposition to a noun "Amusan