

NASAL	m	Bilabial
	n	Alveolar
	ŋ	Velar

Palatal

/j/ sound is a semi vowel sound. Examples of words include: toy, suit, tune, year, few, view, Europe, educate, student, union, use, onion, queue, stew, new, pure, yeast, yes, yatch etc.

There is a very important point to note about this particular sound. In some words, it can be found before /u/ or /u:/ and in such words it may or may not be represented by any letter of the alphabet. Such words include: cure /kjuə/ huge /hju:dʒ/ tune /tju:n/ few /fju:/, university /ju:nivɜːsəti/ beauty /bjuti/ ewe /ju:/ Europe /juərəʊp/ etc.

/z/ This is a voiced alveolar. This sound in the following: has, is, does, rose, ooze. boys, tells, phrase, examination, exact etc.

/ʒ/ The /ʒ/ sound is voiced palatal alveolar fricative: This sound is found in words such as: pleasure, seizure, prestige, television, conclusion, casual, measure, invasion, provision, leisure etc.

Assignment

Study the consonant chart in your note

Words Associated with Home and Family

A home is a place of residence or refuge. It is usually a place in which an individual or a family can rest and store/keep personal property. A family is a group of people who are related by birth or marriage.

Vocabularies Associated with the Home and Family under the following headings

- Family relations: Siblings, next of kin, grandparents, uncle, aunt, children, mother, father, nephew, niece, brother, sister, etc. cousin
- Items found in the home: Kitchen utensils, e.g. pots, plates, cutleries, cup, gas cooker, stove, blender, etc. wardrobe, bed, bed-sheet, pillows, standing fan, air conditioner etc. cushion, television, centre table, photo frames, dining table etc., washing hand basin, water system, soap-dish, bathing towel etc.