

girl, town, school, men, women, boy, principal etc. These nouns are common because they are not particularly names by which the people and things being described are called. It should be noted that a common noun needs not begin with a capital letter unless it begins a sentence.

3. Collective Noun: This is a noun used to refer to a group of things and class of individuals. Examples a team of players, congregation of worshipers, a group of things, a bunch of banana/keys. Other collective nouns include: committee of, swarm of bees, class of students, family of lions, company of actors, herd of cattle, host of Angel etc.
4. Abstract Noun: They are things or concepts that cannot be touched or seen. They exist in our imagination. We feel and experience them. Example hatred, love, beauty, death, sadness and joy etc.
5. Concrete Noun: Concrete noun can be seen and touched. All other types of nouns except abstract noun are concrete nouns.
6. Countable Nouns: Are those that can be counted. Countable nouns have singular and plural. Example table-tables, box-boxes, man-men.
7. Uncountable Nouns: These are nouns that cannot be counted. They can be expressed in plural forms by using partitives e.g. a piece of furniture, a litre of kerosene, a bottle of wine, a cup of water.

Exercise

Page 37 Exercise 3. Complete the following using the correct partitive. Number 1-10 (from your text).

COMPREHENSION: Reading to comprehend main ideas or story line

The main idea is the most essential part of a story or any piece of writing. The main idea can only be located if you can determine what the topic or subject is. The following questions can help in locating the main idea.

1. What is the passage all about?
2. What is the chief point the writer is trying to make?

Sometimes the main idea is not explicitly/clearly stated. They can be inferred/gotten. That does not mean that it lacks main idea.