

WEEK TWO

Narrative Essay

Narrative essay is a complete account of an imaginary or true life story which one experienced or witnessed. The story must be believable.

Topics under narrative essay:

1. How I spent my last holiday
2. How I escaped being kidnapped
3. Story that illustrate the saying "It pays to be disciplined"
4. Story that illustrate the saying "a stitch in time saves nine".
5. Story that illustrate the saying "had I known I wouldn't have believed him"

Features of Good Narrative Essay

1. Title: It should have a good captivating and interesting title. The title should be written either in small or block letters.
2. The body of the essay should be written in paragraph starting with the introduction of the first paragraph. It should have an interesting beginning.
3. The conclusion bears the summary of the story and equally shows the state of the writer's mind, whether he is happy or sad at the end.
4. Guidelines

Content

- a. Events narrated must be convincing and realistic. The reader should be led to believe that what he is reading is true.
- b. The story should have a few characters to make the story effective.

SPEECH: SELECTED CONSONANT SOUNDS /θ/ AND /ð/