

To produce these sounds the tip of the tongue touches the front teeth with the mouth slightly open. While /θ/ is voiceless, /ð/ is voiced. The only possible spelling form for these two sounds is “th”

/θ/ is found in words like

three

theme

thanks

think

north

throat

thin

breath

mouth

author

oath

thought

/ð/ is found in words like

three

rather

they

them

though

those

that

their

breather