

Broiler: young chicken reared for eating

Dairy products: food items made from milk, e.g cheese and butter

Pasture: grassland on which grass eating animals feed.

Vaccinate: inject with vaccine as protection against illness

Veterinary doctors: person trained to treat animals.

Under crop science some relevant words are

Annual crops: These are crops that last up to one year before harvesting

Biennial crops: crops that stay for two years before harvesting

Cover crops: Crops that provide cover for soil protection.

Cash crops: Crops grown for commercial purposes

Food or subsistence crops: These are crops grown for the upkeep of the family.

Some relevant words in horticulture are

Florist: A person that cultivates flowers

Ornamental plants: Are plants used for decoration

Horticulturist: A person who has studied the science of

Potted plants: These are plants planted inside the pot

Green house: A nursery for green vegetables

Flower plants: Plants with varieted colours

Hybrid fruits: Fruits that has high productivity rate.

Comprehension: Reading to comprehend main idea or storyline. Unit 2 between morality and the law.

Read the passage to get the topic or main idea in the passage.

Reading to comprehend main ideas involve reading to understand what the passage is all about.

Main idea is the main gist or the most essential part of a story or a piece of writing. It can be located if you can determine what the topic or subject is.

The following questions can help you locate the main ideas

1. What is the passage all about?