

TYPES OF NOUN

Nouns are words used to name ideas, people, places or things.

A noun is a naming word.

TYPES OF NOUN

1. Proper noun: These are specific noun or particular names of people animals, places or things.

Examples: John, Nigeria, January, Tuesday. Proper noun always begins with capital letters.

2. Collective noun: These are names given to a group of people, animals, places or things. Or class of individual. Examples: Fleet of cars, bunch of keys, crowd of people. They are used in singular form but gives the impression of plurality.

3. Common noun: These are general names given to group or class of people, animals, places or things. Examples: boy, girl, woman, man, town, goat, dog, table etc.

4. Abstract noun: These refer to a feeling or experience rather than physical objects. They are things or concept that can not be touched or seen. They exist in our imagination and by experience. Examples: love, hatred, hunger, wisdom, joy, sadness, honesty, happiness etc.

5. Concrete noun: These are noun that we can touch and feel. Examples: cups, bags, tables, chairs, books, pens etc.

ASSIGNMENT

Write short note on each of the following types of noun with examples.