

NOUNS AND TYPES OF NOUNS.

A noun denote a name given to a person, a place, animal or thing. It is a name of anything that can be the subject, object or complement of sentences; person, place, thing, animal, concept, quality activity, state, dates and measures etc.
e.g. Musa went to Lagos yesterday.

Mom felt dizzy as she alighted at the bus stop. bus stop.

TYPES OF NOUNS.

1. Proper Nouns! Proper nouns are particularly names of people, places, continents, towns, oceans, institutions, months, days etc.
E.g. Ade comes from Kwala, but he is in London.

Nigeria is one of the countries in Africa.

2. Common Nouns! A common noun refers to the name given to all people or places or things of the same kind such as man, desk, house, woman, book etc.

E.g. the house belongs to my father.

The girl left the books on the table.

3. Collective Nouns! It refers to names of groups of people or things. It can be treated as a single entity or as a plural.

Class:

Subject:

School:

60
Leaves

ral depending on what the speaker has in mind - Crowd, choir, family, congregation, army, spectator, ~~class~~, team.
E.g! The team played last week.
The committee is meeting on the issue next week.

4. Abstract Nouns! They are things we cannot hold or touch but can be felt, appreciated or valued such as anger, happiness, poverty, wisdom, peace, information, intelligence etc.
E.g! Anger is one of his major problems.
Pride leads to destruction.

5. Countable Nouns! They are nouns that can be counted; they have singular and plural form - they take indefinite article "a" or "an" in the singular form.

E.g! I have a book but my sister has two books.
He bought an umbrella last week.

6. Uncountable Nouns! They are also referred to as mass nouns. They are nouns that cannot be counted; they only have the singular form but uses plural form in some cases.

E.g! Water is essential for life.

I take a cup of coffee every morning.