

Types of Noun

1. Proper Noun: Names of specific people, places, or things.

Example: Nigeria, Ahmed, Lagos.

2. Common Noun: Names of general people, places, or things.

Example: city, girl, book.

3. Collective Noun: Names of groups of people or things.

Example: team, herd, class.

4. Abstract Noun: Names of ideas, feelings, or qualities that cannot be touched.

Example: love, honesty, bravery.

5. Concrete Noun: Names of things that can be seen, touched, smelled, heard, or tasted.

Example: table, dog, perfume.

6. Countable Noun: Names of things that can be counted.

Example: apples, cars, books.

7. Uncountable Noun: Names of things that cannot be counted.

Example: water, sugar, rice.