

Narrative Essay

A narrative essay is a type of essay that tells a story. It is written from the writer's point of view and often describes personal experiences, events, or incidents in a chronological order (the order in which they happened).

Features of a Narrative Essay

1. Storytelling – It tells a story with a beginning, middle, and end.
2. Characters – There are people (real or imagined) involved in the story.
3. Setting – The place and time where the story happens.
4. Plot – The sequence of events or actions in the story.
5. Conflict – A problem or challenge that makes the story interesting.
6. Point of View – Usually written in first person ("I", "we") to make it personal.
7. Description – Uses descriptive language to create clear pictures in the reader's mind.
8. Moral or Lesson – Often ends with what the writer learned from the experience.

Structure of a Narrative Essay

1. Introduction

Introduces the story or event.

Captures the reader's attention.

May include background information.

2. Body

Describes the main events in order.

Builds up to the climax (the most exciting part).

Uses paragraphs for each main event or stage.

3. Conclusion

Brings the story to an end.

States the outcome or lesson learned.
