UNIT TOPIC:- NOUNS

LESSON TOPIC:- THE DEFINITE ARTICLE AND ITS FUNCTION WITH THE NOUNS.

TIME:-

DURATION:-

PERIOD:-

INSTRUCTIONAL OBJECTIVES:- At the end of the lesson, the students should be able to....

- 1) define nouns
- 2) identify the use of countable nouns with indefinite article
- 3) identify the use of countable nouns with the definite articles.
- 4) answer questions on nouns and the definite article/ indefinite article

INSTRUCTIONAL RESOURCES :- A cardboard paper containing examples of words with the definite articles.

PRESENTATION

STEP 1:- IDENTIFICATION OF PRIOR IDEAS

Mode: Individual

TEACHER'S ACTIVITIES:- The teacher ask the students this question- mention five types of nouns you have studied.

STUDENTS' ACTIVITIES:- The students respond to the teacher's question that we have: proper nouns, common nouns, collective nouns, abstract nouns and concrete nouns.

STEP II:- EXPLORATION

Mode: Individual

TEACHER'S ACTIVITIES:- The teacher ask the students to mention examples of countable and uncountable nouns.

STUDENTS ACTIVITIES:-The students respond to the teacher's question.

STEP III:- DISCUSSION

Mode: Entire class

TEACHER'S ACTIVITIES:- The teacher with the instructional resource guide the students on the following:

A noun is a name of a person, animal, place or things. It is a naming word.

All nouns are categorized into either countable or uncountable nouns.

Countable nouns are nouns that can be counted. They have singular and plural forms eg chair, table etc.

Uncountable nouns cannot be counted and they have only singular forms eg water, rice, oil etc.

Articles: 'a' and 'an' can be used before any noun to refer to a general item eg a bag, an attitude, an apple, a book, etc.

'The' is referred to as the definite article because it refers to something specific or unique. The definite article is used in referential usage with nouns.

READ THE FOLLOWING CAREFULLY

- 1) The water you bought is warm
- 2) I asked for soup but the soup you brought was watery.
- 3) The iron I bought yesterday did not work
- 4) What did you do with the money I gave you?
- 5) Buy me the paper Tuesday, please.

Each of the expressions: The water, the soup, the iron, the money, the paper contains an uncountable noun used with the definite article. The meaning of each one is different when these uncountable nouns are used without the definite article.

'The water you bought for me' refers to a definite amount of water presented either in a glass or a container.

The same is true of each one of the examples. Some of them eg 'the paper' have special meanings.

- Here we are talking about a particular kind of paper.

Unlike 'a' or 'an', 'the' can precede both uncountable and countable nouns.

We do not use 'a' or 'an' with plural or uncountable nouns.

'The' is used for unique items ie when there is only one of such items eg the sun, the equator, the President, the Duchess of Cambridge.

Items shared by a group of people are:

Preceded by 'the piano, the door, the broom, the' floor etc.

Exception

We do not use 'the' for the groups of items below:

Abstract nouns. Eg. Love, Art etc

Illness/ skin, problems eg. malaria, pimples

Proper nouns- Ahmadu Bello University, Port Harcourt

Direction- north, night

Planets eg. Jupiter, Mars etc.

STUDENTS' ACTIVITIES:- As the teacher explains, the students are actively involved.

STEP IV:- APPLICATION

Mode: Entire class

TEACHER'S ACTIVITIES:- The teacher ask the students from what they have learnt to give two(2) instances where the use of definite article 'the' is possible.

STUDENTS' ACTIVITIES:- The students respond to the teacher's question, that we use the definite article 'the' to single out an item or a person using adjectives, as in ' the tallest boy'

We can also use 'the' with only adjectives to refer to people and things.

Eg Kehinde is the most handsome boy.

We use 'the' for groups of years as in 'the seventies'

Eg. Those shoes were popular in the, eighties, proper nouns can actually take 'the' when we want to show a difference.

Eg The Kano I used to know was better than the present one. It is now very noisy.

STEP V:- EVALUATION

Mode: Entire class

TEACHER'S ACTIVITIES:- The teacher evaluates the lesson with the following questions:

- 1) What is a noun
- 2) What are countable and uncountable nouns?
- 3) Mention with examples four ways where the definite article 'the' can be used with nouns.
- 4) Mention with examples; Exceptions to the use of definite articles

STUDENTS' ACTIVITIES:- The students respond to the teacher's questions.

ASSIGNMENT:- The teacher ask the students to answer questions on (page 27) 1-3 and complete the dialogue on the same page by putting 'the' where necessary.
