STUDENTS' ACTIVITIES:- The students respond to the teacher's question.

STEP III:- DISCUSSION

Mode: Entire class

TEACHER'S ACTIVITIES:- The teacher with the instructional resource guides the students on the following:

Summary expresses in few words what has been said in very many words. It calls for brevity, ie being brief. Summary involves writing down a brief and concise account of long passage. In other words, it can be described as a shortened form of a long passage after removing all irrelevant points from the main points and giving a short account of the passage using your own words.

A topic sentence contains the main idea in a paragraph. Usually but not always the topic sentence in the first sentence in the paragraph. The topic sentence gives a sense of direction, directing the attention of the reader to what is to be discussed in a particular paragraph.

USING HINTS USED IN ANSWERING SUMMARY QUESTIONS INCLUDE:

- a) In summary questions, there is no room for examples, repetition and illustrations.
- b) Analogy and flowery language (ie figures of speech) have no place in summary writing.
- c) The use of link words or connectives is not part of summary writing eg . Also, moreover, however, furthermore etc.
- d) Use a preamble which when read together with the numbered points would makes complete sentence.
- e) Write one sentence for each point
- f) Avoid any grammatical or expression error in each sentence.
- g) Do not lift word for word from the passage.
- h) Use roman figure in numbering.

STUDENTS' ACTIVITIES:- The students read through a passage and identify the topic sentences in each paragraph.
