

PHRASES AND TYPES

A phrase is a group of words without a finite verb that works together as a unit in a sentence.

Types of Phrases (with simple examples)

1. Noun Phrase

A noun phrase has a noun as its head word.

Examples:

the tall boy

my new book

a beautiful dress

👉 Used as subject or object in a sentence.

Example: The tall boy is my brother.

2. Verb Phrase

A verb phrase has a main verb and sometimes helping verbs.

Examples:

is running

has eaten

will go

Example: She is reading a novel.

3. Adjective Phrase

An adjective phrase describes a noun.

Examples:

very happy

full of joy

quite tall

Example: She is very happy today.

4. Adverbial Phrase

An adverbial phrase modifies a verb, adjective, or another adverb.

Examples:

very quickly

in the morning

with great care

Example: He ran very quickly.

5. Prepositional Phrase

A prepositional phrase begins with a preposition and ends with an object.

Examples:

in the room

on the table

under the tree

Example: The bag is on the table.

6. Gerund Phrase

A gerund phrase starts with a verb ending in -ing and acts as a noun.

Examples:

reading novels

playing football

Example: Playing football is fun.

7. Infinitive Phrase

An infinitive phrase begins with to + verb.

Examples:

to read a book

to win the match

Example: She wants to become a teacher.