

Students Note on Introduction to Faceless by Amma Darko for SS 2.

Students' Summary Note

Introduction to Faceless by Amma Darko

Faceless is a novel written by Amma Darko, a Ghanaian writer. The novel was published in 2003 and it focuses on serious social problems in society, especially the suffering of street children and neglected women.

Background of the Author

Amma Darko is a Ghanaian novelist known for writing about social injustice, women's issues, and child abuse. Her works expose problems in African societies and encourage social responsibility.

Background of the Novel

The novel was inspired by the increasing number of street children in Ghana. It shows how poverty, broken homes, and neglect force children to live on the streets. Faceless exposes how society often ignores these children.

Setting of the Novel

The story is set in Ghana, mainly in a slum area called Sodom and Gomorrah. Other settings include homes and offices. The setting reflects urban poverty, hardship, and moral decay in society.

Major Themes

Some important themes in Faceless include:

Child abuse and neglect

Poverty

Broken homes

Gender inequality

Social injustice

Media responsibility

Purpose of the Novel

The novel aims to create awareness about the problems of street children and encourage society and the government to protect the rights of children and women.

If you want, I can also provide:

Short notes on characters

Themes explained in detail

WAEC/NECO objective and theory questions

Summary of chapters

Just let me know 😊