

Clause

A clause is a group of words that has a subject and a verb.

Types of Clauses

1. Main (Independent) Clause

It has complete meaning.

It can stand alone as a sentence.

Examples:

She is reading.

The boy ran away.

Adverbial Clause

Modifies a verb.

Shows time, reason, condition, contrast, purpose.

Example:

I stayed at home because it was raining.

Key Points (WAEC/NECO)

A clause must have a subject + verb.

Not all clauses are sentences.

Clauses are different from phrases (phrases have no finite verb).
