

FCT SCHOOL FOR THE GIFTED
SUBJECT: ENGLISH LANGUAGE – SS1
TOPIC: PRONOUNS

Prepared by:
Mrs. Naadzenga Mgbede Grace (Subject Teacher)

1. Meaning of Pronouns

A pronoun is a word used in place of a noun to avoid repetition.

Example:

- Instead of saying “John came and John took John’s bag,”
- we say “John came and he took his bag.”

2. Functions of Pronouns

Pronouns help to:

- make sentences shorter and clearer,
- avoid repeating the same noun many times,
- show ownership, number, gender, and person.

3. Types of Pronouns

a. Personal Pronouns

These refer to specific persons or things.

Person	Subject Form	Object Form	Possessive
1st singular	I	me	my/mine
2nd singular	you	you	your/yours
3rd singular	he/she/it	him/her/it	his/hers/its
1st plural	we	us	our/ours
3rd plural	they	them	their/theirs

Examples

- I love English.
- The teacher called me.
- They finished their work.

b. Possessive Pronouns

They show ownership and stand-alone without a noun.

Examples: mine, yours, his, hers, ours, theirs

- This book is mine.
- The house is theirs.

c. Demonstrative Pronouns

They point out nouns.

Forms: this, that, these, those

- This is my pen.
 - Those are the new students.
-

d. Relative Pronouns

They introduce relative clauses.

Forms: who, whom, whose, which, that

- The boy who won is my friend.
 - The car which was stolen has been found.
-

e. Interrogative Pronouns

Used to ask questions.

Forms: who, what, which, whom

- Who is at the door?
 - Which do you prefer?
-

f. Reflexive Pronouns

They refer back to the subject.

Forms: myself, yourself, himself, herself, itself, ourselves, themselves

- She blamed herself.
 - We did the work ourselves.
-

g. Indefinite Pronouns

They do not refer to specific nouns.

Forms: everyone, somebody, nobody, few, many, all, some

- Everyone is happy.
 - Nobody came late.
-

4. Position of Pronouns in SentencesSubject Position

- He is my brother.
- We are learners.

Object Position

- The pastor blessed them.
 - I greeted her.
-

5. Common Errors to Avoid

- Do not mix subject and object forms:
 - ✗ Me went to school
 - ✓ I went to school
- Do not use reflexive pronouns wrongly:
 - ✗ Myself and John came
 - ✓ John and I came

6. Summary

- Pronouns replace nouns.
- There are many types with different uses.
- Correct choice of pronoun depends on function in the sentence.

7. Class Activity

Exercise 1: Fill in the gaps

1. Mary is kind; ____ helps everyone.
2. The students saw the doctor and greeted ____.
3. This seat is not yours; it is ____.

Exercise 2: Identify the pronoun type

- The girl who sang is my sister.
- This is better than that.
- He hurt himself.

Take Note: Understanding pronouns will improve your speaking and writing in English.

Below is a comprehensive and student-appropriate SS1 English note on “Word Stress.” It is written in clear language for learners while reflecting the authorship of the teacher.
