

Summary

A summary is a shortened form of a passage that contains only the main ideas. It is written in your own words and leaves out examples, illustrations, and unnecessary details.

Features of a Good Summary

It is brief and clear.

It contains only important points.

It is written in your own words.

It is usually written in simple sentences.

It does not include examples or quotations.

Steps in Writing a Summary

Read the passage carefully.

Identify the main ideas.

Underline or note key points.

Remove examples and repetitions.

Write the points in short sentences.

Things to Avoid in Summary Writing

Copying sentences directly from the passage.

Adding personal opinions.

Writing long explanations.

Including examples.

Summary Writing (WAEC / NECO Tips)

Use one sentence for one point.

Write in your own words.

Avoid padding.

Follow the number of points required.