Subject: English Language

Class: SSS 1 (A & B)

Term: Second Term

Week: 2

Teacher: Mrs. Naadzenga Mgbede Grace

Topic: Verbs (Regular and Irregular Verbs)

1. Definition of a Verb

A verb is a word that shows action, state of being, or occurrence in a sentence. Without a verb, a sentence cannot be complete.

Examples:

- She runs every morning. (action)
 - They are happy. (state of being)
 - The accident happened yesterday. (occurrence)

2. Types of Verbs (Based on Past Tense Formation)

Verbs can be classified into Regular Verbs and Irregular Verbs, based on how they form their past tense and past participle.

3. Regular Verbs

Definition:

Regular verbs are verbs that form their past tense and past participle by adding –ed or –d to the base form.

Formation Rules:

1. Most verbs → add -ed
 - walk → walked

- play → played
- 2. Verbs ending in -e → add -d
 - love → loved
 - like → liked
- 3. Verbs ending in consonant + y → change y to i and add -ed
 - carry → carried
 - study → studied

Examples in Sentences:

- She cleaned the classroom yesterday.
 - We visited our grandparents last holiday.
 - The teacher marked the scripts carefully.

4. Irregular Verbs

Definition:

Irregular verbs do not form their past tense by adding -ed.
Instead, their past forms change completely, change partially, or remain the same.

Characteristics:

- There is no fixed rule for forming their past tense.
- They must be memorized.

Common Irregular Verb Forms:

Base Form	Past Tense	Past Participle
-----------	------------	-----------------

go	went	gone
eat	ate	eaten
see	saw	seen
come	came	come
take	took	taken
write	wrote	written

Base Form Past Tense Past Participle

cut cut cut

Examples in Sentences:

- She went to school late yesterday.
- I have seen that movie before.
- They ate rice for lunch.
- The boy cut the rope with a knife.

5. Differences Between Regular and Irregular Verbs

Regular Verbs	Irregular Verbs
End with -ed / -d in past tense	Do not follow -ed rule
Easy to form	Must be memorized
Example: talk → talked	Example: speak → spoke

6. Summary

- A verb shows action or state of being.
- Regular verbs form their past tense by adding -ed.
- Irregular verbs change form in the past tense and do not follow a fixed rule.
- Correct use of verbs helps improve grammar accuracy and sentence clarity.

7. Class Exercise

1. Identify the verbs in the following sentences and state whether they are regular or irregular:
 - She opened the door quietly.
 - They ran very fast.
 - He finished his assignment.
 - We drank water after the match.
2. Write five (5) regular verbs and five (5) irregular verbs. Use each in a sentence.
