

NOTE ON PHRASAL VERBS

A Phrasal Verb is a combination of a main verb and one or more particles (prepositions or adverbs) that function as a single semantic unit. The meaning of a phrasal verb often goes beyond the sum of its individual parts. The particle can change the meaning of the main verb, resulting in a new expression.

Simply put, a phrasal verb is a combination of a verb and one or more prepositions or adverbs. The meaning of the combination is often different from the individual meanings of the words.

Verbs: A verb is a word that expresses an action, occurrence, or state of being. It is a key element in constructing sentences and can convey various actions or conditions. Examples: come, call, go, take, bring, run, fall, walk,

Preposition:

A preposition is a word that shows the relationship between a noun (or pronoun) and another word in the sentence. It indicates location, direction, time, or manner.

Examples: in, off, at, on, under, beneath, upon, by, of, across, etc

Come, go and call

Examples:

1. Come across: To find or encounter unexpectedly.
Example: She came across an old friend at the market.

2. Come along To accompany or make progress.

Example: Are you coming along with the project?

3. Come around: To change one's opinion or attitude.

Example: He finally came around to our way of thinking.

4. Come by: To obtain or acquire.

Example: Having a chat with Mr. President is not easy to come by.

5. Come down with become ill with a specific illness.

Example: I think I'm coming down with a cold.

6. Go through To examine or review thoroughly.

Example: Let's go through the details of the plan.

7. Go under To fail or go bankrupt.

Example: The company went under due to financial difficulties.

8. Go without To lack or not have something.

Example: We'll have to go without electricity until the power is restored.

9. Go on To continue or persist.

Example: The meeting will go on as scheduled.

10. Go for To choose or select.

Example: I think I'll go for the purple shirt.

11. Call back: To return a phone call.

Example: I'll call you back as soon as I finish my meeting.

12. Call off: To cancel an event or activity.

Example: They had to call off the soccer match due to bad weather.

13. Call for To demand or require.

Example: The situation calls for immediate action.

14. Call in To request someone's presence or assistance.

Example: We need to call in a specialist to fix the issue.

15. Call out: To shout or say something loudly. Example: The teacher had to call out the students for being disruptive.

16. Call up: To phone or contact someone. Example: I'll call up the customer to discuss their concerns.

Crafted by Ewuzie Jacinta GSS Gwarimpa-Estate.