

or at the end of the report so that you can easily be reached if need be mentioning a teacher/witness who could be contacted.

In the concluding paragraph, indicate your willingness to be of further help if need be. use past tense of verbs.

ii. Reporting proceedings of meetings/working Communiques.

Guidelines

Choose most important occurrences or points do not be omitted.

Be clear and use simple English. Avoid any comment of your own that is not discussed.

Give accurate date and figures as including the date of the meeting.

Use sub-headings and number your points.

Report a scientific experiment

Guidelines

State the aim of the experiment

List the apparatus used

Describe the procedure adopted.

Report the observation from the experiment

Similarity Between Report Writing And Essay Writing

They both have formal style

introduction, body and conclusion

Analytical thinking

Careful proof-reading and neat presentation.

Difference Between Report Writing And Essay Writing

1. Report presents information unlike essay that present argument.
2. Report uses numbered headings and sub-headings.
3. Report uses short, concise paragraphs and dot-points where applicable.
4. Report do not always need reference and bibliography is often followed by recommendations.

Categories of Report Writing

1. Report incidents are an eye-witness to an incident such as the police or the principal.

Guideline

Give your full names, telephone number and address, either at the introductory paragraph.

the root of all evil
This is the arrangement of ideas
in an ascending order e.g. lost his pen, money, children and wife.
Anti Climax is the opposite of climax the arrangement of things or ideas in a descending order e.g.
Ola lost his wife, children, money and pen.

~~Report Writing~~ REPORT WRITING

Report writing is an essential skill for professionals. A report aims to inform as clearly and succinctly as possible about an event that took place or official report.