

What is Comprehension?

Comprehension means understanding what you read.

In exams (WAEC / NECO), comprehension tests:

how well you understand a passage

how well you can answer questions from it

What you see in a Comprehension passage

A passage (story or article)

Questions based on the passage

Types of Comprehension Questions

1. Factual questions

Answers are directly in the passage.

Example:

Where did the boy go?

2. Inferential questions

You think from the passage, not direct.

Example:

Why was the man angry?

3. Vocabulary questions

Meaning of words as used in the passage.

Example:

What is the meaning of "rapid" as used in paragraph 2?

Steps to Answer Comprehension Questions (Very Important )

Read the passage carefully

Read the questions

Go back to the passage and underline answers

Answer in your own words (do not copy too much)

Use correct grammar and spelling

Common Mistakes to Avoid ❌

Copying the passage word for word

Writing long stories

Wrong tense

Bad spelling and grammar

Example

Passage:

Ade went to school early. He wanted to meet his teacher.

Question:

Why did Ade go to school early?

Answer:

Ade went to school early because he wanted to meet his teacher.