

Students' Summary Note

Subject: English Language

Topic: Vocabulary Development – Medicine

Meaning of Medicine

Medicine is the science and practice of diagnosing, treating, and preventing diseases to maintain good health. It also refers to drugs or substances used to cure illnesses.

Items Found in a Hospital

Stethoscope

Thermometer

Syringe

Bandage

Wheelchair

Hospital bed

Drip (IV fluid)

Gloves

Face mask

X-ray machine

Activities in a Hospital

Examining patients

Diagnosing illnesses

Giving injections

Performing surgery

Dressing wounds

Conducting laboratory tests

Admitting and discharging patients

Providing emergency care

Hospital Personnel

Doctor: Diagnoses and treats patients.

Nurse: Cares for patients and assists doctors.

Pharmacist: Prepares and dispenses medicines.

Surgeon: Performs operations.

Laboratory Scientist/Technician: Conducts medical tests.

Radiographer: Operates imaging equipment such as X-rays.

Receptionist: Attends to patients and keeps records.

Paramedic: Provides emergency medical care.

Examples of Medical Vocabulary in Sentences

The doctor used a stethoscope to listen to her heartbeat.

The nurse gave the patient an injection.

He was taken to the hospital for surgery.

The pharmacist dispensed the prescribed medicine.

The laboratory technician carried out a blood test.

Importance of Medical Vocabulary

Helps students communicate effectively in health-related situations.

Improves understanding of hospital environments.

Builds vocabulary for academic success.

Promotes health awareness.