

Adjectival Phrase and Their Grammatical Function

✓ Meaning of Adjectival Phrase

An adjectival phrase is a group of words that performs the work of an adjective.

It describes or gives more information about a noun or pronoun.

✓ Grammatical Functions of Adjectival Phrase

1. To describe or qualify a noun

It tells us more about a noun.

Examples:

The girl in the red gown is my sister.

👉 The phrase describes the girl.

The house near the market is beautiful.

👉 The phrase describes the house.

2. To identify or specify a noun

It helps to show exactly which person or thing we are talking about.

Examples:

The boy with curly hair is crying.

👉 It shows which boy.

The book on the table is mine.

👉 It shows which book.

3. To give additional information about a pronoun

It can also describe a pronoun.

Example:

He in the black shirt is my teacher.

👉 The phrase describes he.

✓ How to Recognize Adjectival Phrase

It usually comes after the noun or pronoun it describes.

Example:

The woman with a baby is waiting.

✅ Summary

👉 An adjectival phrase:

Is a group of words

Works like an adjective

Describes or gives more information about nouns or pronouns