

Theme: Structure.

Week: One.

Date:

Class: SS 1.

Period:.....

Time:

Duration:

Unit topic: Structure.

Lesson topic: Phrases -Types of Phrases

Specific (behavioural) objective: at the end of the lesson, students should be able to:

- I. define a Phrase,
- II. state its features.
- III. differentiate between a clause and a phrase.
- IV. cite some examples of phrases.

Instructional resource: a banner showing the types and examples of phrases

Lesson presentation

Step 1: IDENTIFICATION OF PRIOR KNOWLEDGE.

The teacher asks students what they understand about the day's lesson topic.

Mode: individual.

Teacher's activities: teacher asks students the following questions:

- a) What's a phrase?
- b) What is a clause?
- c) Differentiate between a clause and a phrase.

Students' activities: students respond to the questions asked based on their knowledge of the topic.

Step 2: EXPLORATION.

Mode: entire class.

Teacher's activities: teacher guides the students to define a phrase:

In the following sentences, indicate What is a phrase?

A phrase is a group of related words that does not contain a subject and predicate (verb).
Examples: on the table, in the kitchen, the boy.

What is a clause?

A clause is a group of related words that has both a subject and a predicate (verb). Every complete sentence is made up of at least a clause. E.g. He came.

Students' activities: the students listen, repeat after teacher loudly and carryout the class activity.

Step 3: DISCUSSION.

Mode: entire class.

Teacher's activities: The teacher gives opportunity to students to state the types phrases and clauses with examples, and differentiate between a clause and a phrase.

What is a phrase?

A phrase is a group of related words that does not contain a subject and predicate (verb).
Examples: on the table, in the kitchen, the boy.

Types of Phrases with examples

1. Noun Phrase: A phrase that acts as a noun. It contains a noun and may include modifiers. Examples:
 - a. The black dog barked loudly.
 - b. A bunch of fresh roses sat on the table.
 - c. My younger brother ate the food.
 - d. The tall, elegant woman is a doctor.
 - e. Mr. Sam, the tall teacher, teaches English.
2. Verb Phrase: A phrase that includes the main verb and its auxiliaries.
 - a. She is singing beautifully.
 - b. They have been waiting for hours.
 - c. We will meet them at the park.
 - d. He has completed his homework.
 - e. The children were playing in the rain.
3. Adjectival Phrase: A phrase that functions as an adjective, modifying a noun or pronoun.
 - a. The car covered in mud belongs to my uncle.
 - b. The girl, extremely tired from the journey, fell asleep.
 - c. A house built of bricks is durable.

- d. He is someone fond of adventure.
 - e. The movie, too boring to watch, disappointed everyone.
4. Adverb Phrase: A phrase that functions as an adverb, modifying a verb, adjective, or adverb.
- a. She spoke with great confidence.
 - b. He drives in a very reckless manner.
 - c. The team worked harder than expected.
 - d. We will meet after the concert.
 - e. He completed the task in just a few minutes.
5. Prepositional Phrase: A phrase that starts with a preposition and includes its object and modifiers.
- a. The cat is hiding under the bed.
 - b. She walked through the crowded market.
 - c. He left the keys on the kitchen table.
 - d. The gift is for my best friend.
 - e. They went to the top of the hill.
6. Infinitive Phrase (Bonus): A phrase that starts with "to" followed by the base form of a verb.
- a. I want to learn French fluently.
 - b. She plans to visit her grandparents next week.
 - c. He came to fix the leaking tap.
 - d. They are determined to win the competition.
 - e. It's time to leave for the airport.

Differences between a clause and a phrase: the underlined part of each of the following sentences shows a clause while the rest part (non-underlined) of each sentence shows a phrase:

- He reached school in time.
- I was standing near a wall.
- They are singing in a loud office.
- I will meet him in my office.
- You look beautiful in this picture.

Students' activities: the students state the types of clauses explain them with examples and differentiate between a clause and a phrase.

Step 4: APPLICATION.

Mode: entire class.

Teacher's activities: the teacher engages the students in a class activity by taking them through the exercise below:

Class activity

Identify noun phrases in the following sentences:

1. James spoke as though he was a born orator.
2. They felt that the farmer must be commended.
3. When at last he returned to the village, he told him his father had died.
4. The few books that were produced in the Middle Ages were written by hand.
5. When the world was young, artists drew their pictures on stones.

Students' activities: students carry out the class activity in their note books.

Step 5: EVALUATION.

Mode: individual.

Teacher's activities: the teacher asks students the following questions:

- Define a Phrase,
- state its features..
- Differentiate between a clause and a phrase.
- Cite some examples of phrases.

Students' activities: the students respond to the questions asked.

ASSIGNMENT: students are to list ten sentences containing the main and subordinate clauses.

REFERENCE MATERIALS.

Oxford English Language Course Book 3

F Ademola-Adeoye and others(2012). New Concept English for Senior Secondary Schools, Book 2, Learn Africa Plc, Lagos.