LESSON PRESENTATION

Step 1: IDENTIFICATION OF PRIOR IDEAS

Mode: Individual

Teacher's Activities: Teacher asks students the following questions:

- What is an adverb?

- Can you give a sentence that shows how an action was done?
- Can you give a sentence that shows why an action was done?

Students' Activities: Students respond based on their previous knowledge of adverbs and sentence construction.

Step 2: EXPLORATION

Mode: Entire Class

Teacher's Activities: Teacher explains the concept of adjuncts.

What is an Adjunct?

An adjunct is a word or group of words that adds extra information to a sentence. It often tells how, when, where, why, or to what extent an action happens. Adjuncts are not compulsory parts of a sentence but they give more meaning.

Students' Activities: Students listen, repeat key points, and write notes.

Step 3: DISCUSSION

Mode: Entire Class

Teacher's Activities: Teacher explains the two types under consideration with examples.

Adjunct of Manner

An adjunct of manner tells how an action is performed.

Examples: quickly, slowly, carefully, happily, loudly.

Examples in Sentences:

- She answered the question confidently.
- The boy ran quickly.

- They spoke politely to the teacher.

Adjunct of Reason

An adjunct of reason tells why an action is performed.

Examples: because of illness, due to rain, out of fear, for safety reasons.

Examples in Sentences:

- He stayed at home because of the rain.
- She cried out of pain.
- The match was postponed due to bad weather.

Students' Activities: Students provide more examples and copy notes.

Step 4: APPLICATION

Mode: Entire Class

Teacher's Activities: Teacher gives class exercises:

Class Activity:

A. Underline the adjuncts in the sentences below and state their types.

The girl danced gracefully.

The flight was delayed because of fog.

B. Construct two sentences using adjuncts of manner and two using adjuncts of reason.

Students' Activities: Students complete the exercises in their notebooks and share answers.

Step 5: EVALUATION

Mode: A Couple of Students

Teacher's Activities: Teacher asks students to:

1. Define an adjunct.
2. Define adjunct of manner and reason.
3. State the difference between adjunct of manner and adjunct of reason.
4. Give one sentence each using an adjunct of manner and reason.

Students' Activities: Students respond orally and in written form.

ASSIGNMENT:

Write five sentences using adjuncts of manner and five sentences using adjuncts of reason. Underline the adjuncts.
