

Phrasal Verb

A verb phrase is a verb that is made up of a main verb together with an adverb or preposition. Typically, the meaning of a phrasal verb is not obvious from the meaning of the underlined words themselves. The phrasal verbs are important because they are in everyday spoken language.

Example :

Show up = arrive

Wake up = awake

Blow up = explode

Cal off = cancel

Set up = arrange

Throw away = discharge

Fill out = complete a form

Do over = repeat a job

Leave out = omit

Find out = discover/investigate

- Choose (no modifier)
- Come (no modifier)
- Am writing
- Were sleeping
- Have eaten
- Am going to attend

Has been done

Would have died

Was being beaten

Would have been done.

Decides to marry

Wants to go