

Adjunct of manner and reason.

Adjunct of manner

The adjunct of manner shows how something is done. This adjunct answers the questions “how”. Examples of words used to illustrate manner: slowly, happily, in a hurry, sorrowfully, proudly, swiftly, sluggishly, roughly, badly, deeply, foolishly etc.

Sentence samples

1. He embraced his son proudly
2. The job was done haphardly.
3. They hurriedly left the scene
4. The players performed badly yesterday

The adjunct of reason tries to justify why an action is performed. This adjunct answers the question “why?” it is introduced by words like: because, since, as, in order to, so as to, in order that.

Sentence samples

1. He married early because he is the only son.
2. She was sacked since she refused to apologized.
3. The student was sent home because he has not paid school fees.
4. He came late as he was held in a traffic jam.
5. The man left home so as to get there on time.
6. She worked hard in order that she will be promoted.

Exercise

Some words that show adjuncts of manner and reason for students to form sentence using them: humbly, sadly, beautiful, reluctantly, wickedly.

Assignment

Write “Adjunct of manner” or “adjunct of reason” for each of the following sentences.

1. He answered me rudely.
2. I will do it because of you
3. Since you lied to me, I will punish you
4. You must do the job quickly
5. They were absent because they travelled
6. She spends money extravagantly
7. We left in a hurry
8. He has to pay since he pleaded guilty
9. John was punished in order to teach others lesson
10. Funke studies hard so as to pass her examination.