

An adverb is a word that describes or gives more information about a verb, an adjective, or another adverb. It tells us how, when, where, how often, or to what extent something happens.

Examples of Adverbs

How (manner) – quickly, slowly, happily

She ran quickly.

When (time) – now, yesterday, soon

I will come tomorrow.

Where (place) – here, there, everywhere

Come here.

How often (frequency) – always, often, never

He always studies.

To what extent (degree) – very, too, quite

The water is very cold.

Note

Many adverbs end in -ly, but not all.

Slowly  (adverb)

Very  (adverb)

Fast  (adverb without -ly)

Simple Sentences

She sings beautifully.

They arrived late.

He is very tall.
