

Intonation Pattern

What is Intonation

Intonation is the rise and fall of the voice in speaking

Intonation describes how the voice rises and falls in speech.

Intonation add attitude or emotion to the words wrong Intonation cause misunderstanding.

There are two basic Intonation Patterns

1. Rising tune
2. Falling tune.

Rising Intonation Patterns - you have a raise sharply the pitch at the end of the sentence, where as falling Intonation you go down a bit.

1. Rising Intonation is most common in questions that can be answered Yes or No.

e.g Did you enjoy the presentation? →

~~Is~~ Your name Mary? →

2. Requesting clarification; indicating uncertainty. e.g.
What did you say?

3. Express high-energy emotions

4. Polite requests.

5. enumerating items.

Falling tune. describes how the voice falls on the final stressed: e.g.

Wh questions? e.g where, who whose what which etc.

b. Command. e.g

Take that picture

write your name

Put your books on the table

c. statement: Dad wants to change his car

d. exclamation: How nice of you

We use arrow to indicate the Intonation.
