

Continuous Writing: Oral Composition of a Descriptive Essay

A descriptive oral composition is an essay that demands oral description of a person, a place, a scene, an event or an object.

It involves using descriptive words to say something about anything so that people will listen and picture what is being described.

FEATURES OF A DESCRIPTIVE ESSAY

1. Title: You are to state the title of the concept you are talking about.
2. Introduction: Here; you name the event, person, object you are describing
3. The Body: Here you organize your thought properly and describe your content very well.

STEPS TO ORAL DESCRIPTION

1. Choose a topic
2. Create your outline of points
3. Try to say something concerning each points stated.
4. Ensure you follow a descriptive pattern where the points are arranged and connected to one another.

ASSIGNMENT

Describe your school.