

Continuous Writing – Composition on Article Writing

An article is a complete piece of writing on an issue of public interest. It usually contains views or opinions of its writer on a specific issue or topic.

USEFUL HINTS ON HOW TO WRITE A GOOD ARTICLE.

1. Content: The content depends on the topic you are asked to write on, but you must write on all aspect of the question or topic to earn a good mark. Your points must be relevant to the question or topic.
2. Organization
 - a. Writing an article is not the same as writing a letter to the editor of a newspaper. You are not expected to write a letter to the editor when you are asked to write an article for publication in a newspaper or magazine.
 - b. You are expected to write the title of the article clearly on top of the article.
 - c. You are expected to write an introductory paragraph in which you are to give your readers an insight to your topic.
 - d. Consider the interest of your reader also and the effect you want to create on the readers.
 - e. Present your points in a logical order and develop your paragraphs adequately.
 - f. Write your name and class below at the end of your article, if it is for a school magazine. But if it is for a national newspaper or magazine, you write your name and the name of the town you are writing from.
3. Expression
 - a. Your language should be formed since you are writing an article for publication in a newspaper or magazine
 - b. Topics for article calls for expository prose and clarity of expression. write in simple, straight – forward sentences and avoid using slangs
 - c. Your vocabulary should be carefully chosen for effectiveness

Assignment

Write an article meant for publication in one of the national newspapers on the Dangers of vandalizing petroleum pipelines in your country