

Speech : SIMPLEC POLITE REQUESTS, SIMPLE GREETINGS

Request means politely asking for something when making a request either to a known or unknown person. It is always good to show some politeness. One's expression (i.e what one says) and the manner of expression (how it is said), determine the pitch of one's voice.

Rising tone is always used in making request. Modal verbs like "can, will, would, may, could etc, are used for request.

S/N	Request	Appropriate response
1	Can you tell me the time please?	I'm sorry, my wrist watch is not functioning
2	Will you lend me your book today?	No I can't, I have a test tomorrow
3	Will you help me lift my box?	Sure I will, where is it?
4	Do you mind if I use your mathematical set?	Not at all, please go ahead and use it.
5	Can I borrow your pen for a minute	Yes, here it is

Greetings is a sign or word of welcome or pleasure when meeting somebody or receiving a guest. In our day to day activities, we meet a lot of people at home, school, neighbourhood, market, bank, social gathering etc. Every language has its own greetings. In English language, we have two main forms of greetings: formal and informal

Formal greeting is used in formal occasion like birthdays, marriage ceremonies or seasons (Easter, Christmas, and new year etc.). They are also used during greetings of people much older than us, just like greetings e.g. Happy birthday, happy new year, Joe good morning sir, safe journey Gideon, goodbye uncle.

Informal greetings is the greetings used for classmates friends, relations who are not much older than us e.g. Hello, Hi, how are you? – I'm okay, I am fine, fine thank you and you?
