

Speech: Debate on Issues of current interest

The use of mobile phones should be abolished in secondary schools.

A debate is an interactive and positive presentation in which two or more speakers present their argument persuading others to accept their points or views. It shows skills and ability in argument.

Criteria for Debate

1. Timing: The debate must be within the time limit provided.
2. Presentation: The manner you adopt in communicating your ideas and information. For example
 - a. Sufficient information relevant to the topic
 - b. Sequence and orderly presentation
 - c. Human elements used as examples
3. Accuracy of point: Your points must be acceptable facts supporting your point of view.
4. Elocution: Oral delivery which involves adequate control of voice, correct pronunciation and body movement or gesture.

Guidelines for a Debate

1. State your vocatives
2. Define the content
3. Make sure you are convinced about the side you are opposing or supporting so that you don't go out of points.
4. Do not draw a general conclusion from one example or a few points to reach a convincing conclusion.
5. Raise a few weak points supposedly by a member of the opposing side and oppose them with convincing argument.
6. Use polite language and also rhetorical questions to liven up your debate.
7. In strong term, urge your audience to toe your line or argument.
8. As you end, say thank you.

Assignment

You are the chief speaker in a debate on the topic "Technology has made the world a better place". Write for or against the motion.