

LESSON PLAN

Theme: Speech

Week: One

Date: _____

Class: SS 1

Period: 1st & 2nd

Time: 8:00am – 8:40am

Duration: 40 minutes

Unit Topic: Speech

Lesson Topic: Intonation Patterns (Falling and Rising Tones)

Specific (Behavioural) Objectives:

At the end of the lesson, students should be able to:

1. Define intonation.
2. Identify falling and rising tones.
3. State functions of falling and rising tones with examples.
4. Apply correct intonation in spoken sentences.

Instructional Resources:

Whiteboard and marker, Flashcards, Prepared sentences on chart, Audio recordings

Lesson Presentation

Step 1: Identification of Prior Knowledge

Mode: Individual

Teacher's Activities:

Teacher asks:

1. What is speech?
2. Have you noticed how your voice changes when asking questions or making statements?

Students' Activities:

Students respond based on experience.

Step 2: Exploration

Mode: Entire class

Teacher's Activities:

Teacher explains:

Meaning of Intonation

Intonation is the rise and fall of the voice in speech.

Examples:

1. You are coming. ↘
2. Are you coming? ↗

Teacher demonstrates clearly with voice variation.

Students' Activities:

Students listen and repeat after the teacher.

Step 3: Discussion

Mode: Entire class

Teacher's Activities:

Teacher explains the two types of intonation:

1. Falling Tone (↘)

Voice falls at the end of the sentence.

Uses and Examples

A. Statements

1. She is happy. ↘
2. I am going home. ↘
3. They have finished the work. ↘
4. My father is a teacher. ↘

B. Commands

1. Sit down. ↘
2. Close the door. ↘
3. Open your books. ↘
4. Stop talking. ↘

C. WH-Questions

1. What is your name? ↘
2. Where are you going? ↘
3. Why did you come late? ↘
4. How did you solve it? ↘
5. Who is at the door? ↘

D. Exclamations

1. What a beautiful girl! ↘
2. How wonderful this is! ↘
3. What a pity! ↘

E. Certainty / Finality

1. That is the end. ↘
2. I am sure of it. ↘

2. Rising Tone (↗)

Voice rises at the end of the sentence.

Uses and Examples

A. Yes/No Questions

1. Are you coming? ↗
2. Is he your brother? ↗
3. Do you understand? ↗
4. Can you swim? ↗
5. Did you see him? ↗

B. Requests

1. Can you help me? ↗
2. May I come in? ↗
3. Could you lend me your pen? ↗

C. Uncertainty / Doubt

- You are serious? ↗
- He is coming? ↗
- This is correct? ↗

D. Surprise / Echo Questions

- You won the prize? ↗
- He stole your phone? ↗

- They cancelled the exam? ↗

E. Incomplete Thoughts

- If you come early, ↗ we will start. ↘
- When he arrived, ↗ everyone was happy. ↘
- Contrast (Important)
- You are coming. ↘ (statement)
- You are coming? ↗ (question)
- He finished the work. ↘ (certainty)
- He finished the work? ↗ (doubt).

Tips for Mastering Intonation

1. Listen to correct pronunciation.
2. Practice reading aloud.
3. Observe punctuation marks.
4. Avoid flat (monotone) speech.

Students' Activities:

Students practice reading examples aloud and identifying tones.

Step 4: Application

Mode: Entire class

Teacher's Activities:

Teacher writes sentences on the board for students to identify tones and read aloud.

Class Activity

Identify the tone (↘ or ↗):

1. What is your name? → ↘
2. Are you ready? → ↗
3. Sit down. → ↘
4. Can I come in? → ↗
5. Where do you live? → ↘
6. Do you understand? → ↗
7. What a lovely day! → ↘
8. You are coming? → ↗

Students' Activities:

Students carry out their class activity in their notes.

Step 5: Evaluation

Mode: Individual

Teacher's Activities:

Teacher asks:

1. What is intonation?
2. Mention two types of intonation.
3. Give two examples of falling tone.
4. Give two examples of rising tone.

Students' Activities:

Students respond orally or in writing.

Assignment

1. Write five sentences using a falling tone.

2. Write five sentences using a rising tone.

Reference Materials

New Oxford English Course for Senior Secondary Schools, Book One.

New Concept English for SS Schools