

Summary Writing:

A Summary is a brief, Concise and short version of a longer passage. In summary, attention is focused on extracting the main idea which should be the original meaning does not change.

Do not insert any of your own opinion into text

Qualities of a good Summary:

1. A good Summary must be Concise / brief
2. It must be Coherent. It should make sense, it should be clear, readable and understandable.
3. It must be independent: do away with irrelevant details.
4. No direct lifting / Copying of words.
5. Avoid grammatical and spelling errors.