

VOCABULARY: POLITICS

Politics is the process of making collective decisions, managing public affairs, and exercising power within a society or group. It involves negotiations, conflict resolution, and the allocation of resources.

Nigeria has practiced the presidential democracy where the president has executive powers. In order to eliminate despotism, there are checks and balances through the exercise of power by the judiciary and the legislature. The member of the legislative houses and the president are duly elected during the general elections.

Some relevant words are Ballot – box: Box into which voters put their ballot – papers.

Constituency: Voters in an area or district democracy government that is run by all the people, directly or through representatives.

Despot: Ruler who does what he likes and oppresses people

Nomination: Act of naming a candidate for a post or office

Political party: Group of persons or an association formed for the purpose of practicing politics

Voting age: Minimum age at which one is eligible to vote.

Enfranchise: One's right to vote in election

Electoral college: Group of people who have already been voted in as members of the house, who now may vote in the presidential election.

Form sentences with some of the words that are associated with Politics.

Assignment

Write out ten more words that are associated with Politics and their meanings.