

A sentence is a group of words that expresses a complete thought. It usually has a subject (who or what) and a verb (action or state).

Examples:

I am happy.

She is reading a book.

The sun rises in the east.

Types of sentences:

Statement (Declarative): I like music.

Question (Interrogative): Are you coming?

Command (Imperative): Close the door.

Exclamation (Exclamatory): What a beautiful day!
