

Points to note in summary writing

Summary is a brief, clear statement giving most important facts about something. It is a shortened account of any piece of writing.

HINTS ON SUMMARY WRITING

(a) Detect the main points of the text as required. (b) state it precisely, clearly and briefly. (c) Rephrase the text using your own words with the main points in the text. (d) the summary answers must be written in sentences. (e) don't engage in mindless lifting or copying from the passage. (f) inclusion of any irrelevant or extraneous material should be avoided (g) make sure that your sentence is grammatically correct (h) ensure that you do not make two points in a sentence. (i) Smooth blending of words and satisfactory coverage.

