

A stock exchange is a market where shares, stocks, and other securities are bought and sold. It helps companies raise money and allows investors to buy ownership in companies.

Examples of stock exchanges include:

New York Stock Exchange

Nigerian Exchange Group

London Stock Exchange

Functions of a stock exchange:

Buying and selling of shares

Raising capital for companies

Providing investment opportunities

Regulating trading activities

Determining prices of securities

Words commonly associated with the stock exchange include:

Shares

Stocks

Securities

Bonds

Dividends

Investment

Portfolio

Broker

Trading

Market

Equity

Bull market

Bear market

Index

Exchange

Capital

Finance

Investors

Profit

Loss