

A synonym is a word which very nearly has the same meaning as some other words, and which can replace the word in a sentence, without changing the meaning in the sentences. It helps to avoid monotony in writing .

Note the following synonyms and the different shade of meanings:

Synonyms: odour, scent, smell, stench, aroma, fragrance.

Aroma: refers to a pungent, spicy odour e.g the aroma of peppers

Fragrance : Describes a smell that is sweet and agreeable e.g the fragrance of the rose flower odour and smell: refer to something that may be either pleasant or unpleasant e.g. the odour of ol leather, the smell of hydrogen sulphide.

Scent: is less strong than odour or smell as in the scent of lilac

Stench: is an offensive foul smell as the stench of burning rubber.

Typical Synonyms

Word	Synonyms
Confess	admit, own
Abandon	give up, relinquish
Dangerous	risky, perilous
Surrender	resign, yield
Expensive	dear, costly
Disaster	misfortune, calamity
Aloof	shy, withdrawn
Dishonest	unjust, deceptive
Compensate	requite, atone
Dull	gloomy cheerless
Reject	expel, emit
Protagonist	hero, star
Obliterate	efface destroy
Generous	liberal open-handed
Famous	renowned eminent

