

LESSON PLAN 1

Theme: Vocabulary Development

Week: _____

Date: _____

Class: SS 1

Period:

Time:

Duration: 40 minutes

Unit Topic: Vocabulary Development

Lesson Topic: Words Associated with Advertising.

Specific (Behavioural) Objectives:

At the end of the lesson, students should be able to:

1. Define advertising.
2. Identify words associated with advertising.
3. Explain the meanings of the words.
4. Use the words correctly in sentences.

Instructional Materials:

- Whiteboard and marker
- Flashcards
- Sample adverts/posters.

Lesson Presentation

Step 1: Identification of Prior Knowledge

Mode: Individual

Teacher's Activities:

Teacher asks:

ORIENTATION PHASE

- “When you see a message on TV or a poster that makes you want to buy something, what do you think makes it so convincing?”
- “Why do some products become very popular even when many similar ones exist?”

CONCEPTUALISATION PHASE

- “What words can we use to describe the message used to promote a product and the people it is meant for?”
- “How can we describe the name, message, and strategy used by companies to attract buyers?”

INVESTIGATION PHASE

(An advert is given)

- “Study this advert carefully. Identify and list the key elements used to attract buyers (e.g., message, audience, product type, and appeal).”
- “Work in groups to create a short advert for a product. Identify the product, give it a name, create a slogan, and state the target audience.”

Students’ Activities:

Students respond based on experience.

Step 2: Exploration

Mode: Entire class

Teacher's Activities:

Teacher explains:

What is advertising?

Advertising is the act of promoting goods and services to attract buyers.

Words Associated with Advertising (Meanings & Examples)

1. Advertisement (Advert): A public notice promoting a product.

I saw an advertisement on television.

2. Product: Goods or services sold.

This product is very effective.

3. Brand: A particular make of a product.

That brand is popular worldwide.

4. Consumer: A person who buys or uses goods.

Consumers prefer quality goods.

5. Market: A place or system for buying and selling.

The company targets a large market.

6. Promotion: Activities to increase sales.

The promotion attracted many buyers.

7. Slogan: A catchy phrase.

The slogan is easy to remember.

8. Billboard: Large outdoor advert.

The billboard is attractive.

9. Endorsement: Support by a celebrity.

The product received endorsement from a star.

10. Target Audience: Intended consumers.

The advert targets young people.

Step 3: Discussion

Mode: Entire class

Teacher's Activities:

Teacher guides students to read a passage on advertising and use the words the words associated with advertising:

Examples:

1. The advertisement was convincing.
2. The product is affordable.
3. The brand is trusted.
4. The slogan attracts customers.
5. The target audience is teenagers.

Students' Activities:

Students form sentences using the words.

Step 4: Application

Mode: Entire class

Teacher guides students through class activity:

Class Activity

Fill in the blanks:

1. A catchy phrase is called a _____. (slogan)
2. A buyer is a _____. (consumer)
3. Goods being sold are _____. (products)
4. A large outdoor advert is a _____. (billboard).

Students' Activities:

Students complete the exercise.

Step 5: Evaluation

Mode: Individual

Teacher's Activities:

Teacher asks:

1. What is advertising?
2. Mention three advertising words.
3. State the meaning of those words.
4. Use "product" in a sentence.

Students' Activities:

Students respond.

Assignment

Write five sentences using advertising vocabulary.

Reference Materials

New Oxford English Course Book 1.

New Concept English book 1.