

LESSON PLAN: ORAL COMPOSITION (STORY NARRATION)

Theme: Speech

Topic: Oral Composition (Story Narration)

Class: SS 1

Duration: 40 Minutes

Date: _____

Period: _____

Week: _____

Specific Behavioural Objectives

By the end of the lesson, students should be able to:

1. Explain the meaning of story narration.
2. Identify the elements of a good story.
3. Narrate a simple story clearly and logically.
4. Use appropriate voice modulation, facial expressions, and gestures while narrating.
5. Demonstrate confidence in oral storytelling.

Instructional Materials

- Picture cards
- Story prompts
- Whiteboard/Chalkboard
- Flashcards showing story elements
- Audio recording of a story (optional)

Previous Knowledge

Students are familiar with informal storytelling such as folktales, personal experiences, and family stories.

Teaching Method

- Inquiry-Based Learning (IBL)
- Discussion Method
- Demonstration Method
- Oral Presentation

LESSON PRESENTATION

Step 1: Set Induction (Engage) – 5 Minutes

Teacher's Activities

- Asks students:
 - Have you ever told a story to your friends or family?
 - What made them enjoy your story?
 - What makes a story boring?
- Narrates a short interesting story.
- Asks:
 - What made the story interesting?
 - How was the story organized?

Students' Activities

- Respond to questions.
- Listen attentively.
- Suggest features that make stories enjoyable.

Step 2: Exploration (Discovering the Concept) – 10 Minutes

Teacher's Activities

- Guides students to discover the meaning of story narration through discussion.
- Records students' responses on the board.

Meaning of Story Narration

Story narration is the act of telling a story orally in a clear, orderly, and interesting manner.

Students' Activities

- Participate in discussion.
- Suggest meanings based on prior experiences.
- Take notes.

Step 3: Discussion and Explanation – 15 Minutes

Elements of a Good Story

Teacher guides students to identify and explain:

1. Characters – The people or animals involved.
2. Setting – The place and time of the story.
3. Plot – The sequence of events.
4. Conflict – The problem encountered.
5. Resolution – The solution to the problem.
6. Moral Lesson – The message learned.

Features of Good Oral Narration

1. Clear voice.
2. Correct pronunciation.
3. Logical sequence of events.
4. Appropriate facial expressions.
5. Suitable gestures.
6. Eye contact with the audience.
7. Confidence and fluency.

Step 4: Teacher's Model Story

Topic: Honesty Pays

One day, a boy named Tunde found a wallet on his way to school. He looked around to see if anyone had dropped it, but there was no one nearby. Curious, he opened the wallet and saw a large amount of money along with an identity card.

For a moment, Tunde was tempted to keep the money. He thought about all the things he could buy. However, he remembered what his parents had taught him about honesty. He decided to do the right thing.

When he got to school, he took the wallet to his class teacher and explained how he found it. The teacher checked the identity card and contacted the owner, who turned out to be a trader in the community.

Later that day, the owner came to the school looking worried. When he saw his wallet, he became very happy. He thanked Tunde sincerely and offered him a reward, but Tunde politely refused.

The teacher praised Tunde before the whole school for his honesty. From that day onward, he became a role model to other students.

Moral Lesson: Honesty pays.

Teacher Demonstrates

- Voice variation.
- Proper pronunciation.
- Facial expressions.
- Appropriate gestures.
- Logical sequencing.

Step 5: Guided Practice (Elaborate) – 10 Minutes

Group Activity

Teacher provides story prompts such as:

1. A Day I Will Never Forget.
2. The Lost Phone.
3. An Unexpected Visitor.
4. My Most Memorable Holiday.
5. The Day I Helped Someone.

Students' Activities

- Work in pairs or groups.
- Identify:
 - Characters
 - Setting
 - Conflict
 - Resolution
- Prepare a short oral narration.

Step 6: Independent Practice (Evaluate) – 10 Minutes

Teacher's Activities

- Invites students to narrate their stories before the class.
- Assesses students using the following criteria:
 - Clarity
 - Organization
 - Fluency
 - Expression
 - Confidence

Students' Activities

- Narrate stories individually.
- Listen to classmates' presentations.

Evaluation

Teacher asks students:

1. What is story narration?
2. Mention four elements of a good story.
3. Why is voice modulation important in storytelling?
4. State two features of effective oral narration.
5. Narrate a short story in five to six sentences.

Assignment

Oxford English Language Course Book 1
New Concept English Language Book 1

Assignment

Prepare and narrate a story on the topic:

"Honesty Pays"

The narration should:

- Contain at least three characters.
- Have a clear beginning, middle, and ending.
- State the moral lesson.