

Theme: Speech

Week: _____

Date: _____

Class: SS 1

Period: _____

Age: 13 years and above

Sex: Mixed

Time: _____

Duration: _____

Unit Topic

Speech

Lesson Topic:

Simple Polite Requests and Simple Greetings

Specific Behavioural Objectives

At the end of the lesson, students should be able to:

1. Define polite requests and greetings.
2. Give examples of simple polite requests.
3. Give examples of simple greetings.
4. Use polite requests and greetings appropriately in communication.

Instructional Resource

Charts showing examples of simple polite requests and greetings.

Lesson Presentation

Step 1: Identification of Prior Knowledge

Mode: Individual

Teacher's Activities

The teacher asks students the following questions:

Orientation Stage

- How do you greet your teacher or parents in the morning?

Conceptualization Stage

- Why is it important to use polite expressions when speaking to people?

Investigation Stage

- Can you identify the polite request in this sentence: "Please, may I borrow your pen?"

Discussion/Reflection Stage

- How can greetings and polite requests improve relationships in school and at home?

Conclusion Stage

- What is the difference between a greeting and a polite request?

Students' Activities

Students respond to the questions based on their previous knowledge and experiences.

Step 2: Exploration

Mode: Entire Class

Teacher's Activities

The teacher guides students to define polite requests and greetings and gives examples.

What is a Simple Polite Request?

A simple polite request is a respectful way of asking someone to do something or give something.

Examples of Simple Polite Requests

1. Please help me with this assignment.
2. May I borrow your pen?
3. Could you open the window, please?
4. Kindly close the door.
5. Please, may I come in?
6. Can you explain the note again, please?
7. Please give me some water.
8. Could you help me carry this bag?
9. May I ask a question?
10. Please lend me your notebook.

What is a greeting?

A greeting is a word or expression used to welcome someone or show politeness when meeting people.

Examples of Greetings

1. Good morning.
2. Good afternoon.
3. Good evening.
4. Hello.
5. Hi.
6. How are you?
7. Nice to meet you.
8. Welcome.

9. How was your day?
10. Goodbye.

Students' Activities

Students listen attentively, repeat after the teacher, and take notes.

Step 3: Discussion

Mode: Entire Class

Teacher's Activities

The teacher explains the importance and uses of polite requests and greetings.

Importance of Simple Polite Requests

1. They show respect.
2. They promote good manners.
3. They encourage cooperation.
4. They make communication friendly.
5. Importance of Greetings
6. Greetings show courtesy.
7. They create friendliness.
8. They make people feel welcomed.
9. They promote peaceful relationships.

Dialogue Examples

Simple Greetings

1.

A: Good morning, Musa.

B: Good morning, Esther. How are you today?

A: I am fine, thank you.

2.

A: Good afternoon, class.

B: Good afternoon, teacher.

3.

A: Hello, Jane.

B: Hello, Grace. Nice to see you.

4.

A: Good evening, Dad.

B: Good evening, my son.

5.

A: Hi, David. How was your day?

B: It was fine, thank you.

6.

A: Welcome to our school.

B: Thank you very much.

7.

A: How are you this morning?

B: I am very well, thank you.

8.

A: Nice to meet you.

B: Nice to meet you too.

9.

A: Goodbye, friends.

B: Goodbye. See you tomorrow.

10.

A: Have a nice day.

B: Thank you. Same to you.

Dialogue Examples on Simple Polite Requests

Dialogue Examples

Simple Greetings

1.

A: Please, may I borrow your pen?

B: Yes, you may.

2.

A: Could you help me with this exercise, please?

B: Certainly.

3.

A: Please open the window.

B: Alright.

4.

A: May I come in, sir?

B: Yes, come in.

5.

A: Kindly lend me your notebook.

B: Here you are.

6.

A: Could you repeat the question, please?

B: Yes, I will.

7.

A: Please give me some water.

B: Okay.

8.

A: Can you show me the way to the library, please?

B: Yes. Follow me.

9.

A: Please help me carry this bag.

B: No problem.

10.

A: May I ask a question?

B: Yes, you may.

Students' Activities

Students practice greetings and polite requests in pairs and groups.

Step 4: Application

Mode: Entire Class

Teacher's Activities

The teacher guides students through the following class exercise.

Class Activity

Complete the following expressions correctly:

1. _____ morning, teacher.
2. Please, may I _____ your ruler?
3. _____ afternoon, everyone.
4. Could you _____ the window, please?
5. How _____ you today?

Students' Activities

Students complete the exercise in their notebooks and practice orally.

Step 5: Evaluation

Mode: Individual

Teacher's Activities

The teacher asks students the following questions:

1. What is a simple polite request and greeting?
2. Mention five examples of simple polite requests.
3. Mention five examples of greetings.
4. State two importance of greetings.

Students' Activities

Students answer the questions individually.

Assignment

Students should write ten examples of polite requests and ten examples of greetings used at home, school, or in the community with appropriate responses.

Reference Materials

1. Oxford English Language for Senior Secondary Schools Book 1.
2. NERDC English Language Curriculum
3. Macmillan English for Senior Secondary Schools