

Lesson Note on Argumentative Essay

Meaning of Argumentative Essay

An argumentative essay is a type of essay in which the writer presents a viewpoint on an issue and supports it with facts, reasons, examples, and evidence in order to persuade the reader.

* Features of an Argumentative Essay

1. Clear statement of position (for or against).
2. Logical arguments and supporting evidence.
3. Formal language.
4. Persuasive tone.
5. Well-organized paragraphs.
6. Conclusion that reinforces the writer's opinion.

* Structure of an Argumentative Essay

1. Title

2. Introduction

Introduce the topic.

Provide background information.

State your position clearly.

3. Body Paragraphs

Present arguments supporting your position.

Give examples, facts, and explanations.

Address opposing views where necessary.

4. Conclusion

Summarize key points.

Restate your position.

End with a convincing statement.

* Example Topic

"Should Social Media Be Allowed in Secondary Schools?"

* Points For

- Enhances communication.
- Promotes learning through educational platforms.
- Improves digital literacy.

* Points Against

- Causes distraction.
- Encourages cyberbullying.
- May affect academic performance.

* Sample Introduction

Social media has become an important part of modern life.

While some people believe it should be allowed in secondary schools because of its educational benefits, others think it distracts students from their studies. I strongly believe that social media should be allowed in schools under proper supervision.

